Planning and Monitoring

Academic Planning & Monitoring

The Teaching and Learning process in the institute is planned and monitored by Academic Committee which constitutes of Principal, Academic co-ordinator, Academic in-charge, Head of the departments and respective class teachers. Academic Policies and Procedures Manual is meant to serve as reference for all policies and procedures that impact academic conduct of the institute.

The academic committee reviews the SPPU curriculum of B. Pharm and M. Pharm programs periodically. Taking into consideration student centric learning process and in order to bridge the curricular gaps, various curriculum enrichment programs through guest lectures, seminars, workshops, etc. are designed in discussion with IQAC and R & D cell of the institute.

For better understanding, the lectures are delivered by using both blackboard and audio video power point presentations. The Institute also offers tutorial teaching, which is an interactive session with small groups of students and faculty.

Mentoring system is adopted with the objectives to provide guidance to the students and to help students in discovering various options for their career and future. House system is initiated by the institute for extra-curricular development of students. Institute provides student centric learning and also involves students in various administrative and academic committees for Intellectual, emotional and social development.

Attendance

1. 80% attendance for both theory and practical classes separately is mandatory to appear for sessional and University examinations. If mandatory attendance requirement is not achieved, the student are detained from sessional and Savitribai Phule Pune university examination.
2. Students of each class have one allotted class teacher and every student has one allotted mentor to resolve academic / personal problems.
3. Time table is strictly followed and late entries are not entertained. Prior permission is required for absenteeism.
4. In-semester assignments are included as a part of academics to impart greater enhancement in academic performance of students.
